

Republic Day (26th January 2022)

On 26th January 2022, Baba Mastnath University celebrated Republic Day with great patriotism and enthusiasm. Organized by SBMNIPSR under the Faculty of Pharmacy, the event was a heartfelt tribute to the spirit of the Indian Constitution and the values it upholds. Convened by Prof. (Dr.) Pawan Jalwal with co-conveners Dr. Balvinder Singh, the event was graced by the esteemed presence of Dr. Anjana Rao as the guest of honor. With the participation of 25 attendees, the program focused on fostering national pride and civic responsibility among students and faculty members.

The Republic Day celebration began with the hoisting of the national flag by Dr. Anjana Rao, followed by the singing of the national anthem. The program included speeches, cultural performances, and interactive discussions highlighting the importance of the day. Speeches by faculty and students emphasized the significance of Republic Day as a moment to reflect on India's progress and reaffirm commitment to its democratic ideals. Patriotic songs and cultural performances further enriched the event, creating an atmosphere of unity and celebration.

The event provided a platform to remind attendees of their duties as citizens and inspired them to contribute actively to nation-building. Faculty members and students collaboratively ensured the success of the celebration, fostering a strong sense of community and shared responsibility.

Republic Day serves as a powerful reminder of the democratic values enshrined in the Indian Constitution and the sacrifices made by countless individuals for India's independence and sovereignty. Celebrating this occasion in an academic institution promotes a sense of national pride, unity, and responsibility among young minds. Events like these also align with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), particularly SDG 4 (Quality Education) and SDG 16 (Peace, Justice, and Strong Institutions), by fostering awareness, education, and engagement around the principles of justice, equality, and responsible citizenship.

The celebration saw the active involvement of 25 participants, including students and faculty members, who enthusiastically engaged in various activities. The event created a platform for participants to understand and reflect on the importance of Republic Day while inspiring them to uphold democratic values in their personal and professional lives. Attendees left with a renewed sense of pride and a commitment to contribute to the nation's progress through active participation in civic and community activities.

The Republic Day celebration at Baba Mastnath University was a meaningful and inspiring event that reinforced the values of democracy, equality, and national pride. By engaging participants in patriotic and educational activities, the event highlighted the university's commitment to fostering responsible citizenship and contributing to the nation's sustainable development goals.
